PIG SPIT

EQUIPMENT

ROTISSERIE / FIREBOX
 CHARCOAL (6 To 8 BAGS)
 LITTLE SHOVEL

CHARCOAL GRILL
 LONG TONGS
 1 BAG / PLAYSAND

We place the sand in the firebox to keep the heat from going out the bottom. No reason in losing any energy out the bottom of the firebox.

Start your first bag of charcoal in the firebox. From then on start charcoal in the small grill. Transfer with the tongs to the main firebox when glowing hot. You ask why?

Charcoal has a fine dust on it when it comes out of the bag. Pour it on the fire and the dust coats the meat. Need I say more?

1. TABLES TO WORK ON. ( PICNIC TABLES ARE FINE. )
2. GLOVES ( WHITE COTTON: TO HANDLE THE HOT MEAT. )
3. GLOVES ( PLASTIC: TO SERVE WITH. )
4. WIRE, THREAD, & NEEDLES (TO CLOSE CAVITIES / SECURE TO SPIT TONGS.

5. SPRAY BOTTLE OF VINEGAR OR WATERED WINE.

6. ROLLS OF ALUMINUM FOIL, WAXED PAPER. BAGGIES, ZIP LOCS

7. FENCE POLES

If it is windy, place these in back of the firebox. Stretch aluminum foil between them to break the wind. This will conserve heat and cut down the cooking time. Otherwise, add a couple of hours to your joy.

8. MEAT THERMOMETERS (COOK TO 170°)

9. CUTTING TOOLS

ASSORTMENT OF KNIVES
 WIRE CUTTERS

ELECTRIC KNIFE
 SCISSORS

AND OF COURSE:

APRONS, CHEF HATS, B B Q SAUCE (OPTIONAL)

ADDITIONS

⇒ Here is a neat one: Freeze some heads of lettuce. Place them in the cavity and sew tight. The frozen heads of lettuce keep the thin stomach meat from turning before the thicker parts are done.

⇒ In parts of the South, hot honey is brushed over the meat. Gives it a natural taste.

⇒ Use cutting boards to prepare

⇒ the finished product. Do not cut while on the spit. Juice spills, causing flare-ups. In general it is not a good policy.
